Dear Friends in Christ,

Jesus often turns our world upside down. “You have heard it said, ‘Love your neighbor and hate your enemy. But I tell you, Love your enemies and pay for those who persecute you.’” (Matthew 5 43-44). In Luke chapter 13:1-17 Jesus heals a woman on the Sabbath in the Synagogue and in so doing challenges social and religious norms of the day.

Walter Wink, in his book Engaging the Powers, suggests that Jesus' action represented a revolution happening in seven short verses. In this short story, Jesus tries to wake people up to the kind of life God wants for them. He often talks about the Kingdom of God where people have equal worth and all of life has dignity. But in the latter part of his ministry, he begins to act this out. In the midst of a highly patriarchal culture Jesus breaks at least six strict cultural rules:

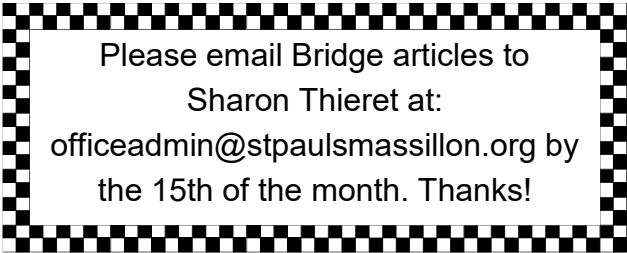

1. Jesus speaks to the woman. In civilized society, Jewish men did not speak to women. Remember the story in John 4 where Jesus spoke to the Samaritan woman at the well. She was shocked because a Jew would speak to a Samaritan. But when the disciples returned, the Scripture records, "They were astonished that he was speaking with a woman?" In speaking to her, Jesus jettisons the male restraints on women's freedom.
2. He calls her to the center of the synagogue. By placing her in the geographic middle, he challenges the notion of a male monopoly on access to knowledge and to God.
3. He touches her, which revokes the holiness code. That is the code which protected men from a woman's uncleanness and from her sinful seductiveness.
4. He calls her "daughter of Abraham," a term not found in any of the prior Jewish literature. This is revolutionary because it was believed that women were saved through their men. To call her a daughter of Abraham is to make her a full-fledged member of the nation of Israel with equal standing before God.
5. He heals on the Sabbath, the holy day. In doing this he demonstrates God's compassion for people over ceremony, and reclaims the Sabbath for the celebration of God's liberal goodness.
6. Last, and not least, he challenges the ancient belief that her illness is a direct punishment from God for sin. He asserts that she is ill, not because God willed it, but because there is evil in the world. (In other words, bad things happen to good people.)

And Jesus did all this in a few seconds. I wonder if Jesus came today what other social and religious norms he would challenge?

Blessings,
Pastor Mark

Community Meal and Community Closet

August 12, 2022

St. Paul's welcomed seventy-seven (77) guests to our monthly Community Meal and Community Closet on Friday, August 12.

Our summertime menu consisted of Italian sausage with peppers and onions, penne pasta, tossed salad, dinner roll, choice of a beverage, and mini-cheese cake for dessert.

Among the attendees were 3 small children. Each was given a small toy as a gift from the congregation.

Most of the attendees visited both the Community Closet and our "special additional needs" tables either before or after the meal. It is clear that these complimentary ministries have made a positive impact for many of these people. We are very fortunate that we are in a position to help so many folks that can use a little help. Praise God!

A special thanks to our many volunteers who work so hard to make this outreach effort a success. What a joy it is to serve the Lord!

St. Paul's Community Meal and Community Closet provide a free meal and clothing for all on the 2nd Friday of each month. Our next opening is Friday, September 9, from 4:30 to 6:00. Thank you for your prayers and continued support.

Dear St. Paul's friends,

Last year on our Amish Tour (Which was a great day!) Loren Veigel and I talked about planning another trip for this Fall that would include visiting wineries. Loren has planned a trip based on our conversation for our members and friends. You can learn more with the attached flyer. Loren always puts together a great trip and I am sure you would enjoy this day.

Cathedral Concerts in the Evening

Special thanks to all who made our partial 2022 season of Cathedral Concerts in the Evening a tremendous success! Our concert series brought extremely talented artists and performing groups to our beautiful space, uniting our congregation and greater Northeast Ohio community in worship, fellowship, and outreach.

I am grateful to all performers, attendees, volunteers (ushers, reception facilitation, sanctuary preparation, program creation), the Music and Worship Committee members, Pastor Mark Kreemer, and our incredibly generous sponsors (please see the back of any concert program) for making this possible.

We are currently planning an active and exciting 2022-2023 season. Have an idea for a concert? Want to sponsor the series or a specific concert in honor/memory of a loved one? Please don't hesitate to contact Chad. Our series is only possible with the support and generosity of our congregation and community!

She has appeared in recital throughout Europe, Oman, Australia, New Zealand, the United States, and Canada, including at the Cathedrals of Cologne and Regensburg (Germany); the ElbPhilharmonie (Hamburg); the Royal Festival Hall, St. Paul’s Cathedral, Westminster Cathedral, and Westminster Abbey (London); City Hall (Stockholm); the Royal Opera House of Muscat (Oman); the Forbidden City Concert Hall (Beijing, China); Victoria Hall (Singapore); Melbourne Town Hall (Australia); Auckland Town Hall (New Zealand); Disney Hall (Los Angeles), Davies Hall (San Francisco), the Meyerson Symphony Center (Dallas), the Kimmel Center, and the Wanamaker Organ at Macy’s (Philadelphia); and the Maison Symphonique (Montréal).

Dr. Demers is in continual high demand by her colleagues as witnessed by performances for numerous regional and national conventions of the American Guild of Organists, the Institute of Organ Builders and International Society of Organbuilders, the Royal Canadian College of Organists, and the Organ Historical Society. She has released multiple CD recordings on the Acis and Pro Organo labels. Her latest CD, recorded at Chicago’s Rockefeller Chapel, was released in January 2020, and includes works of Reger, Laurin, Dupré, Mendelssohn, Tchaikovsky, and Macmillan.

Dear Family and Friends of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church,

I am excited to share that our church will offer another season of our concert series, Cathedral Concerts in the Evening. Last season, we joyfully welcomed Two Men and a Bench (Chad Pittman and Mark Thewes, organists), the Capital University Chapel Choir (with Northwest High School and Massillon High School Advanced Choirs), The University of Michigan Men's Glee Club (with Northwest High School Men's Chorus), A Chorus for a Cause, and internationally acclaimed concert organist, Hector Olivera, to our beautiful sanctuary here in Massillon. We consider our opening season a TREMAENDOUS success and can't wait to welcome you back for another year of inspiring and diverse music and worship.

Our mission for this series is to offer the greater Massillon/Canton community (and beyond) quality concerts free of charge, facilitate opportunities for meaningful fellowship and outreach, feature our beautiful space, and develop relationships with local and national arts organizations. The musical offerings will be varied and diverse, highlighting both professional and community concerts of all kinds.

This series is something very special, and I feel so honored to share beautiful music, worship and fellowship with YOU!

In an effort to ALWAYS keep concerts free to all, we take a freewill offering at each event and are seeking special tax-deductible contributions/offerings from our church family in advance. Contributions may be made in honor or memory of a loved one/friend. All donors' first and last names will be listed in each program, unless indicated otherwise. Donors may sponsor an entire concert, part of a concert fee, or give any smaller amount. Any full concert sponsorship will get a special FULL page in the program honoring the chosen individual(s) or organization(s) for whom the funds are given, if desired. Please know that any amount-large or small-will make an incredible impact on this ministry. We always schedule high-quality events and therefore depend on generous support outside the formal freewill offerings.

When preparing a concert, we plan for various costs: performer fees and logistics (travel, lodging etc.), high-quality and frequent advertising (newspapers, online, and others), program materials, and hospitality events such as post-concert receptions, and other meetings/meals. We absolutely depend on individual/family sponsorship.

To give to Cathedral Concerts in the Evening, you may contribute in person or mail a donation to the mailing address listed above. Please make sure to CLEARLY write CONCERT SERIES on your check-to St. Paul's Lutheran Church-and envelope. If you would like to sponsor an entire concert, a large portion of a concert, volunteer in some capacity at any event or have any questions, please reach out to me individually at the email address on the left or 330-608-1655.

I am honored to spend my days in ministry with this wonderful community, and can't wait to see you at a concert...or several this year.

A Study of Revelation

Grace to you and peace from him who was and is and is to come... (Rev. 1:3a)

The New Testament book of Revelation is one that in some cases is given a lot of attention or in other cases, not given much attention at all. On September 11, we will begin a study of this rich and challenging Scripture. Although steeped in symbolism and imagery, it is a book full of encouragement and hope as well as warning. Studying it this summer in preparation for our time together has been a blessing for me and I look forward to studying it further with you. Although we may not always land on the exact meaning for every verse (there are multiple interpretations for much of the book) we will focus on the main themes and be abundantly blessed by God's gift of Scripture to us.

Please join us each Sunday as we meet immediately following the morning worship service on the top floor of Parish Hall. An elevator is available for easy access. And bring a friend! The good word about the class is best spread by those of you who regularly attend. Thank you for encouraging others to explore God's word with us.

Words of Life

Jesus and the Promise of the Ten Commandments Today

By Adam Hamilton

Nearly everyone has heard of the Ten Commandments, the list of "thou-shalt-nots" found in the Bible. Jesus saw these commandments not as onerous burdens, but as guideposts to help us experience a good and beautiful life. These ten ancient "words" were given to us by a loving God who longed to set safe boundaries, create order out of chaos, help communities live peacefully, and protect us—often from ourselves.

In this book of Scripture and inspiration, bestselling author Adam Hamilton brings modern eyes to the most important set of ethics in history. He considers the commandments in their historical context, considering the meaning of each commandment in Hebrew, unpacking how Jesus reinterpreted them, and showing how every thou-shalt-not was intended to point to a life-giving "thou shalt." He also explores how the latest research in science and psychology illuminates these commandments, rightly understood, as a way of ordering one's life beautifully in the present day. In a culture marked by workaholicism, materialism, and social media-driven envy, God has given us a time-tested path that leads to gratitude, confidence, and peace.

Habitat Wall Raising Meet the Ball family

Family and Current Housing

When Marcus thinks about his family's new Habitat home, he thinks about the yard first. Currently, the Ball family lives in a rental property that's located on a busy street with fast-moving traffic. It's dangerous enough that when Audrey and Adrienne want to ride their bikes, their parents have to drive them somewhere else. Marcus can't wait to give his daughters a safe place to play outside. For Adrienne (4), who is autistic, having a backyard area where she can have freedom to run around safely will be a life-changing benefit. At the family's current rental—which has a rotting backyard fence—they worry about her wandering away and getting hurt. Not only is the rental property unsafe for the girls when they want to be outside, but it costs more than the family can afford. Marcus has spent a decade working as a warehouse associate for a local company, and as his income has increased, the family has had to pay more in rent. In addition to being too expensive, the family's rental also poses several structural problems. The windows don't lock or close all the way. Plumbing issues in the bathroom cause water to run down the ceiling and walls. The family deals with mice on a regular basis, even though they've paid for an exterminator. "Having the opportunity to have something new and have that foundation to start fresh is a wonderful opportunity," Marcus said.
