A Season of Change?

Dear Friends in Christ,

Dear Friends in Christ,

It's hard to believe that summer is coming to an end.

The days are still warm, but there is something different in the air. The evenings are getting shorter. School buses are back on the roads. Vacations and summer trips are becoming memories. Before long, the leaves will begin to change, and we will find ourselves pulling sweaters and jackets out of the closet.

There is something about this time of year that reminds us that life is always changing.

We sometimes resist change. We get comfortable with the way things are, and we wish we could hold on to certain seasons of life just a little longer. We might wish summer would never end, or that our children would stay young, or that life could remain exactly as it was when everything seemed simpler.

But the seasons remind us that change is not necessarily something to fear. Change is part of God's creation.

The writer of Ecclesiastes tells us that there is “a time for every matter under heaven.” There is a time to plant and a time to harvest, a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to keep and a time to let go.

September is a time of transition. And perhaps that makes it a good time to ask: Where is God leading us next?

As a congregation, we are experiencing our own seasons of change. We continue to grow and adapt, welcoming new people, discovering new ministries, and finding new ways to serve our community. Some things remain familiar, while other things look very different than they did a few years ago.

Through all of those changes, however, one thing remains constant: God's faithfulness.

The prophet Isaiah reminds us, “Do not remember the former things, or consider the things of old. I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth.”

Notice that God doesn't say, “Forget everything that came before.” Our past matters. We carry with us the faith, wisdom, traditions, and memories of those who came before us. But God also reminds us not to become so focused on yesterday that we fail to see what God is doing today.

As we enter a new season, I hope we can do just that.

I hope we will look around St. Paul's and see not only what we have been, but what God is calling us to become. I hope we will welcome the changes that bring new people into our congregation. I hope we will continue to find ways to share God's love with our neighbors. And I hope we will remember that ministry is never about simply maintaining what we have—it is about joining God in what God is doing in the world.

So as summer fades into fall, take a moment to notice the change.

Enjoy the last warm evenings. Give thanks for the memories of summer. Watch for the first signs of autumn.

And when you do, remember that the God who was with us through the summer will be with us in the fall as well.

The seasons change. Life changes. We change. But God's love remains.

May God bless you and your family as we enter this new season together. I look forward to seeing you at St. Paul's this fall as we continue the journey together.

Blessings,

Pastor Mark

Adult Sunday School

The Prophet Jeremiah

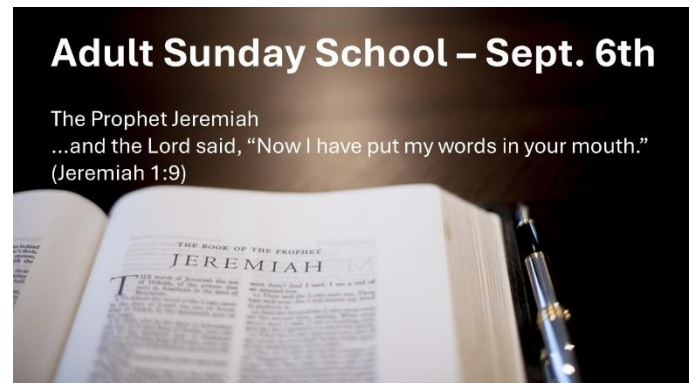

...and the Lord said, "Now I have put my words in your mouth."

(Jeremiah 1:9)

Beginning September 6, the Adult Sunday School class will once again meet for fellowship and Bible study after the morning worship service. The focus for September and the coming months will be a close look at Jeremiah, an Old Testament prophet whose story and that of those who heard his message have much to teach us. Ancient words? Yes. With relevance for us today? Absolutely.

Whether you have regularly attended Sunday School or are thinking about making it a regular part of your Sunday morning at St. Paul's, know you will receive a blessing from the study of God's Word. That's a promise.

The group meets in Parish Hall, second floor, after morning worship from approximately 11:30 - 12:10. An elevator is available for easy access.

Easter Lilies in August

Song of Songs 2:12 \(NRSVUE\)

The flowers appear on the earth; the time of singing has come, and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land.

A special thanks to Barb Palmer for her dedication to the flowerbeds. Her regular weeding and care are much appreciated.

- Making backs by sewing material together and sewing the hems after being pinned

(Sewing squares together and making backs can be done at home.)

Historic Road Trip

Robert Toland Wright designed many of the beautiful windows at St Paul's. He also designed beautiful windows for Grace Lutheran Church in Wadsworth. Peg Gibbs has contacted them, and they have invited us to come tour their church and learn about the windows.

On October 1st at 12:45 pm, we will begin our tour at St. Paul's learning about the windows Wright designed for our church and then carpool to Grace Lutheran in Wadsworth to learn the history of their windows.

On the way home we will stop at Dragonfly Winery in Canal Fulton for a drink of wine, beer or soft drinks. You can also order appetizers, flat breads or sandwiches.

Let us know you are coming by calling the office 330.832.7409 or tell/txt Sue Reid directly.

Note: Friendship Circle will be participating in this trip in lieu of their October meeting.

Church Council Highlights

Report from August, 2026

Pastor Mark gave a brief report on those in our church family who are sick or homebound.

Ideas were discussed about stricter enforcement of the doors not opening until 4:00 for the monthly community meal.

We had a report from Jim Johnson concerning the many repair and maintenance issues for our buildings. The elevator is fixed, the parts for the air handler have been ordered, and the AC unit in the sanctuary has been repaired but will now require coolant. Council authorized $3000 for this.

There was a lengthy discussion of what to do with the Education Building. We have several options, all of which are expensive. We will make a survey available to the congregation to get their thoughts on what should be done. We will also have a few informational sessions after worship to inform every one of the current problems, potential future problems, and the possible solutions

We have 2 cemetery plots at Sunset Hills which we will sell for $2700 plus a $300 title transfer fee. Interested parties should see Dan Farrar or myself. This is a savings of $795 for anyone interested.

Abby will have a presentation of the organ repairs needed for the congregational meeting on August 16th.

The agenda for the upcoming congregational meeting was discussed.

Respectfully submitted,

Kathryn Myers, Council President

Cemetery Lots for Sale

Church council authorized the sale of our cemetery lots at Rose Hill Memorial Gardens and Sunset Hills Memory Garden.

Rose Hill is charging $1,250, plus a $125 title change fee for their lots.

St Paul's is offering them for $1,000 plus a $125 title change fee.

Sunset Hills is charging $3,495, plus $300 title change fee for their lots.

St. Paul's is offering $2,700, plus the $300 title change fee.

See Kathryn Myers or Dan Farrar if interested.

Church Picnic

Another Church Picnic is in the books. The food was plentiful and delicious, and the entertainment was excellent. Special thanks to our grill masters, Dave Stoner and Dennis Morgan and our talented percussionist, Ellie Manes

Share a light meal, Bible study, and fellowship

Friendship Circle

Report from Kim Oberlin:

Summer wasn't over yet for our ladies at the August Friendship Circle! Our hostesses served up a summer picnic type dinner and Janet Kuller provided our Bible Study. As always, it's just great to get together with our ladies!

All ladies are welcome to join us on the first Thursday of each month, April thru December at 6:00 for a light dinner, fellowship and Bible study.... Always happy to welcome new faces!

Note: October 1st, Friendship Circle will be participating in the Historic Road Trip in lieu of the meeting.

Mission Endowment

The Mission Endowment Committee has been hard at work. They collected paper supplies for ComQuest Family Services during the month of August. In addition, they awarded the following:

- $2500 to the Comquest Family Service Center to purchase a new freezer
- $1000 to Heifer International to purchase livestock so inhabitants can sustain their own livelihoods
- $5000 to ELCA-Lutheran World Relief to purchase sanitary products for girls so their studies aren't interrupted throughout the school year.

August Community Meal Report

Report by Kim Oberlin:

We had a great evening in spite of the weather, and served 86 guests. Dinner consisted of chicken Alfredo with broccoli, salad, and rolls. For dessert we scooped up ice cream sundaes with all the fixings to celebrate the end of summer.

A special thanks to our volunteers!

Our Community Meal takes place on the second Friday of the month from 4:30-6:00 for any who wishes to help with this worthwhile cause. Please label any monetary donations, "Community Meals," to ensure the funds are in the right place.

August Clothing Closet Report

We were busy again this month with approximately 80 shoppers, many of who were new to our ministry.

Pictured is our new bookcase. Thanks to John Stanko for his "assembly skills." This helped clean up the area and allowed us to expand our materials. Books, magazines, Audio books, gratefully accepted.

Thank you God's Kitchen Angels, for your generous monetary donation. We purchase supplies and needed items that aren't typically donated for those in need.

We are always thankful for the wonderful array of donations. The patrons of the closet thank you as well. Looking for another way to help those in need? A portion of your monetary weekly donations can also be given to the clothing closet to purchase items for hard to fit shoppers and special events. Please, notify Dan Farrar or Tracie Schmolt of the portion you would like to give.

Remember, items left over from garage sales are welcome. Shoppers love the variety of items.

Questions? Please contact Carol Stoner or Tracie Schmolt

Please pray for our partner Cindy Lash as she recovers.
