Today's pre-concert music is provided by Gabriella Kowalski, pianist, and violinist in the Canton Youth Symphony Advanced Ensemble. Gabriela is a homeschooled 10th grader who studies piano with Dr. Maira Lillestadt and violin with Cornel Zotta. She is very passionate about music and is studying piano pedagogy this year with plans to begin teaching students of her own this winter. Gabriela hopes to attend a strong conservatory program where she can further her musicianship.

Please join us for our next concert, featuring violinist Andrew Sords and pianist David Overly, Sunday, November 1, 2026, at 3:00 PM. Pre-concert music, by pianist Emma Rambler, begins at 2:30 PM.

2026-2027 Concert Series

Message from St. Paul's Director of Music:

Welcome to our second concert of the 2026-2027 season! Irish singer and songwriter Bono once said that “music can change the world because it can change people,” and we are so glad you are here to connect with us through the gift of music.

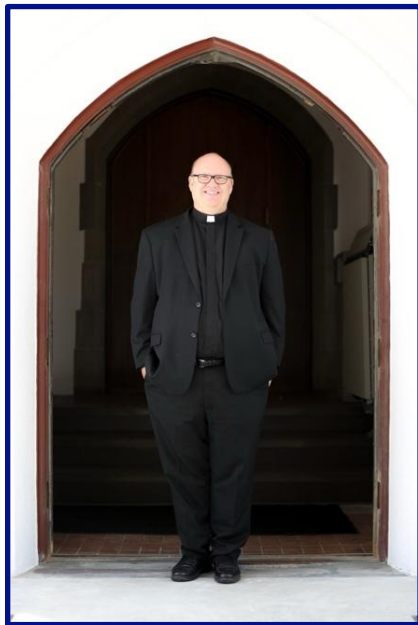

We are fortunate to be able to offer these concerts to the community at no cost and are exceedingly grateful for all our donors whose financial support helps to make our series possible.

We are also grateful for Gabriella Kowalski for providing our pre-concert music today. It is an honor to support the next generation of community musicians.

We have a lot of wonderful music happening here at St. Paul's this fall! Our next Cathedral Concert is on Sunday, November 1, at 3:00 PM and features violinist Andrews Sords and pianist David Overly who will present “The Romance of the Violin.” Pre-concert music will begin at 2:30 PM. On Saturday, November 14, also at 3:00 PM, we will be hosting Sonnenberg Station, an Ohio-based men's vocal ensemble. Please plan to join us for these concerts and bring a friend with you!

May God give us faith to sing always,
Dr. Abigail Haake

Message from St. Paul's Senior Pastor:

Good afternoon, and welcome to St Paul's Lutheran Church and to our Cathedral Concert Series. It is a joy to share this time of music with you in this sacred space. We believe that music has a way of lifting hearts, opening minds, and drawing us closer to the beauty of God's presence.

On behalf of our congregation, I want to extend a special word of gratitude for your being here tonight. Whether you are a longtime friend of this series or joining us for the very first time, we are glad you are part of this gathering.

As you enjoy the gifts of tonight's performance, I also want to invite you to return and join us for worship on Sunday mornings at 10 am. Each week, we gather in this same space to celebrate God's grace, to be renewed in faith, and to share in the fellowship of Christ. You will find a warm welcome here, and we would be delighted to see you again.

Thank you for coming, and may this afternoon's music be a blessing to you.

With warm regards and anticipation,
Rev. Mark Kreemer
