Advent: More Than a Countdown to Christmas

Dear Friends in Christ,

Every year, it seems that Christmas arrives a little earlier. Before Thanksgiving has even passed, the stores are filled with Christmas decorations, radio stations are playing Christmas music, and our calendars begin filling up with parties, concerts, shopping, and family gatherings. Before we know it, Christmas is here!

In the middle of all this activity, it is easy to lose sight of the season we are actually in. Advent can quickly become little more than a countdown to Christmas, with each passing Sunday bringing us one week closer to December 25. But Advent is meant to be more than that. It is an invitation to slow down, to pay attention, and to prepare our hearts for the coming of Christ.

The word Advent comes from a Latin word meaning "coming" or "arrival." During these four weeks, we remember Christ's coming into the world in Bethlehem, we celebrate Christ's presence among us today, and we look forward to the promise that Christ will come again. Advent reminds us that God's story is bigger than one night in Bethlehem. It is a story that continues to unfold in our lives and in the world around us.

So how do we keep Advent from becoming simply a countdown to Christmas?

Perhaps we begin by making room for a little quiet in the middle of our busy lives. Instead of filling every moment with activity, we might take a few minutes each day to read Scripture, offer a prayer, or simply sit in silence. Lighting an Advent candle at home can become a small but meaningful reminder that we are waiting for something more than the arrival of Christmas morning.

We can also keep Advent by looking beyond ourselves. The prophets remind us that God's coming kingdom is one of justice, peace, and hope. We see Christ in the people who are hungry, lonely, struggling, or in need of a helping hand. An act of kindness, a visit with someone who is alone, or a gift to someone in need can become an expression of the very hope we celebrate during this season.

And finally, we can remember that Advent is a season of hope, especially for those who may find the holidays difficult. Not everyone approaches Christmas with excitement. Some are grieving the loss of loved ones, some are facing difficult circumstances, and others are simply longing for a little peace in their lives. The message of Advent is that Christ comes into the world not because everything is perfect, but precisely because the world needs God's love, grace, and hope.

Perhaps the greatest gift Advent offers us is the opportunity to remember that we don't have to rush toward Christmas to find God. God is already at work among us. In the quiet moments, in the kindness we share, in the people we serve, and in the hope we hold onto, Christ is already present.

This December, I invite you to do more than count down the days until Christmas. Take time to experience the season of Advent. Make room for prayer, extend a little extra kindness, and look for the ways Christ is already entering your life.

May this season be more than a preparation for a holiday. May it be a time of renewed faith, deeper hope, and a greater awareness of God's presence among us.

Blessings,

Pastor Mark

Advent

Waiting with Purpose

...while we wait for the blessed hope... (Titus 3:13a)

The Season of Advent is all about waiting. But how should we wait? Does more clearly understanding what we are waiting for affect how we wait? We will complete our study of Jeremiah and let God's message through the prophet help us answer these questions.

The class gathers for Bible study and fellowship at 11:30, top floor Parish Hall, following Sunday morning worship. An elevator is available for easy access. Come and meaningfully wait with us!

Thursday Morning Bible Study at 10:00 am

Come, Thou Long Expected Jesus

Open your heart to the good news of Christmas

The Christian year is fundamentally a roadmap for pilgrims, as biblical witnesses lead spiritually hungry people on a journey to receive the full riches of God's grace. During Advent, we take the first steps.

Start your pilgrimage today and experience the full riches of God's love.

Recognizing our Veterans

Veterans Day

The purpose of celebrating Veterans Day on November 11 is to honor and thank all men and women who have served in the U.S. Armed Forces, both in wartime and peacetime. It recognizes the dedication, courage, and sacrifices made by veterans and their families to protect the nation.

Veterans Day began as Armistice Day to mark the temporary end of fighting in World War I on November 11,1918, at 11:00 a.m.

In 1954, Congress and President Dwight D. Eisenhower changed the name to Veterans Day to honor veterans of all American conflicts.

St. Paul's gave recognition to our veterans during the November 15th, 2026 Worship Service.Christmas Food Baskets

Welfare and Social Committee will collect nonperishable food and miscellaneous items for our Community Meal families for Christmas. The items will be distributed at our Community Meal on Friday, December 11th.

Collection began in October and will end December 6th. Please place your donations in the box located at the side entrance of the church.

Wednesday Advent Services

Please join the Massillon Area Lutheran Churches during Advent.

All services will be held on Wednesdays at 7 pm at a different Massillon Lutheran Church.

Pastor Ash December 2nd Faith Lutheran

Why did God choose such an ordinary and vulnerable way to enter the world?

Primary Scripture readings

- Luke 2:1–20 – The birth of Jesus in a manger, announced first to shepherds. God enters the world without earthly privilege, power, or recognition.
- Philippians 2:5–11 – Christ empties himself, taking the form of a servant. This passage offers a theological explanation of God's humility in Jesus.
- Isaiah 9:2–7 – The promise of a child who will bring light, justice, and peace.

Pastor Mark December 9th Holy Trinity

What does it mean to celebrate Christmas when someone is experiencing grief, loneliness, or hardship?

Primary Scripture readings:

- Isaiah 9:2–7 – The people walking in darkness have seen a great light. Christmas is a promise of hope even when life feels dark.
- John 1:1–14 – The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it. God enters our human experience rather than remaining distant from it.
- Luke 2:25–38 – Simeon and Anna have waited through long seasons of life before encountering the Christ child. Their stories speak to waiting, hope, and faithfulness.

Pastor Tina December 16th Christ Lutheran

Why did Herod feel so threatened by the birth of Jesus?

Primary Scripture readings:

- Matthew 2:1–18 – The visit of the Magi, Herod's fear, the slaughter of the innocent children, and the flight into Egypt.
- 1 Samuel 18:6–16 – King Saul becomes jealous and fearful of David's growing popularity and sees him as a threat.
- John 18:33–37 – Jesus speaks with Pilate about his kingdom and the nature of his kingship.

Advent Wreath

In Lutheran tradition, Advent candles represent the growing light of Christ coming into the world during the four weeks of preparation before Christmas. Lit one by one each Sunday, they focus on anticipating Jesus's past arrival in humility, his present work in believers' hearts, and his future return in glory.

Themes of the Candles

First candle: Hope (or Prophecy, focusing on Old Testament promises of the Messiah).

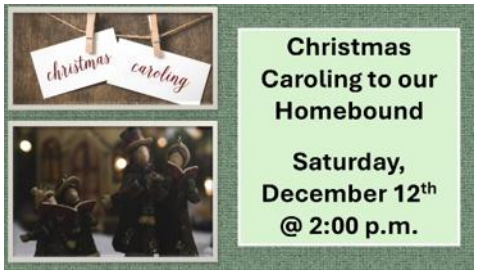

Second candle: Peace or Faith (or Bethlehem, focusing on preparation for Jesus's birth).

Third candle: Joy (associated with Gaudete / "Rejoice" Sunday, or the Shepherds).

Fourth candle: Love or Peace (or the Angels, looking ahead to fulfillment and Christ's return).

Center "Christ candle" (optional fifth candle): White, lit on Christmas Eve or Christmas Day to symbolize Jesus as the light of the world.

Christmas Caroling

Make plans to join us for Christmas caroling on Saturday, December 12 at 2:00 p.m.

This is a great chance to feel and share the true spirit of Christmas with our homebound members. We will break into groups and go off in different directions to sing and bring Christmas cheer to these special members of our congregation. When the singing is done, plan to return to church to share a meal together.Please help us plan for dinner by signing up. Signup sheets will be in the lounge and the portico.

Angel Tree Gift Tags

Angel Tree gift tags are available in the Portico

The tags will have suggested gift ideas for children and families in need this Christmas Season.

Please return your unwrapped gift to the church by December 10th, you may also drop them at the Salvation Army.

Parents and children will then get to pick a gift for their loved one and wrap it themselves. If you have a specific gift for a child, please see Barb.*

God's Kitchen Angels

Christmas cookie season is serious business.

God's Kitchen Angels have been very busy kicking off their Christmas cookie season. Getting all the ingredients can be quite a chore, but also a lot of fun. Becky Johnson shared the "prerequisite" cookie information.

Ingredients include:

50 lbs. white sugar	35 lbs. butter
20 doz. Eggs	2 cups baking soda
1 ½ cups cream of tartar	120 lbs. flour
40 lbs. powdered sugar	9 bottles vanilla
1 gal. milk

The project begins with 5 people traveling to Rebecca's in Walnut Creek for a delicious lunch. This is a must to provide strength to unload all the ingredients. We were then off to The Ashery where Conrad Yoder always gives our Kitchen Angels a discount. We shared lots of laughs and fellowship as we unload a truck full of ingredients.

The next phase of the project is making the dough, cutting out the cookies, baking, icing, then bagging the orders. 302 dozen or 3,655 cookies were baked and bagged! For quality control purposes, all broken cookies were "tested."

The profit will be about $2,830.
12 dozen cookies will be donated to the community meal and 5 dozen to our homebound members.

Thank you to all my angels and the congregation for their support!

Merry Christmas!

Church Council Highlights – Report from November 2026

Pastor Mark gave a brief report on those in our church family who are sick or homebound. He will be on vacation from Sunday afternoon, November 15 until November 21.

Dan Farrar attended a synod Zoom meeting about church insurance and the possibility of lowered costs by combining with other Lutheran churches. 22 churches attended the meeting, so there is interest in this. No conclusions or follow-ups were scheduled.

Jim Johnson reported that Coon Restoration has completed the repairs to the stonework and that Buxton is doing some needed roof repairs. There is always much to be done to maintain a 100 year old building. The leak testing in the Education Building was completed, but the company was unable to definitively find the source. We may need to use portable heaters in some rooms over the winter to try to prevent broken pipes.

I reported that the total for the garage sale is $2265 so far with items still online for sale.

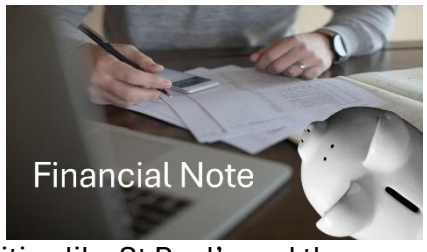

The Stewardship/Capital Campaign Committee has met and will continue to do so as we undertake the many repairs needed. Brady Rupp will do a temple talk on the 15th of this month.

The Candlelight Walk, Christmas Caroling, Christmas Eve services, food bags, and decorating were all discussed.

Respectfully submitted,

Kathryn Myers, Congregational President

If you are required to take minimum distributions (RMD) from your IRA a QCD counts towards your required distribution but won't be included as taxable income. QCD's must come from the IRA directly to the qualified charity. See Dan Farrar if you have any questions.
